GIVEN AND ENTHUSIASTIC GOODBY.

Waiting Crowds Cheered Wildly When the Signal Was Given From the Australia For the Other Vessels to Get Under Way—Battery of United States Artillery Fired a Salute to General Anderson—Noise Made by People on Sea and Shore Was Something Terrific. In About Six Days, if All Goes Well, the Ships Will Join the Charleston in Honolulu Harbor, but Are Likely to Beat Her to Manila.

MADRID, May 26.—A Havana dispatch says the Americans are concentrating before Guantanamo as well as Santiago. There are indications that the squadrons are preparing to attack Cervera.

KEY WEST, May 26.—Spampson's fleet was before Havana Monday morning. Later some of his vessels and the flagship sailed eastward.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The situation as to the fleets, both American and Spanish, seems precisely the same, the only notable difference being an apparent strengthening of the confidence of the officials in their belief that Cervera's squadron is lying in the Santiago harbor. In this hope and belief the officials found great comfort, knowing the abilities of the American naval commanders in Cuban waters to keep the Spanish admiral bottled up in his narrow-neck harbor until he shall surrender or be starved out. If Cervera is actually at bay, the officials feel not the slightest apprehension of any relief coming to him from the outside in the shape of another Spanish squadron from Cadiz.

The reason for this belief is their unquestioned ability to hold Cervera in check with only a few vessels—perhaps a couple of monitors and torpedo-boats—thus leaving the remainder of the big armored fleet and a great number of unarmored but serviceable war craft to take care of any reinforcements that might attempt to come from Spain to Cervera's aid. The force that could be spared for this service, without endangering the integrity of the blockade at Havana or permitting the escape of Cervera, would be much larger than the entire Spanish naval force now in Spanish waters capable of crossing the Atlantic.

CAPE HAITIAN, Haiti, May 26.—A rumor, which cannot be confirmed, is circulating here to the effect that the Spanish Cape Verde squadron, under Admiral Cervera, generally understood to be at Santiago de Cuba, is now at Cienfuegos.

HAD A SHAM BATTLE.

War Exercises at Chickamauga—An Assault Upon a Brigade.

CHATTANOOGA, May 26.—The First and Second brigades of the first division of the first corps assaulted the Third brigade, which was entrenched on Snodgrass hill, and a highly exciting as well as a very creditable sham battle occurred.

By actual count, the number of men now in Chickamauga park is 34,888. There are 35 regiments of infantry, two of cavalry and eight batteries of artillery. Ohio has furnished the greatest number of men. She has six regiments with 5,328 men on the field. Pennsylvania, which ranks next, also has six regiments, but a slightly smaller number of men. As far as equipment is concerned, the army will be ready to move on Cuba within 15 days.

A corps of the Red Cross society is now being organized in Chattanooga for service in the camp.

The Women's club of Cincinnati has donated a chapel tent to the First Ohio infantry. In nearly all the camps regular religious services are now held.

Excellent order is now being preserved both in the park and in the city. The two New Hampshire boys put on the rock pile by the city officials for insulting ladies a few days ago will probably be released, as it is believed they have been sufficiently punished.

The Second Iowa, under Colonel D. K. Jackson, passed through the city over the Southern railway enroute for Tampa.

The Eighth regiment, New York infantry, 1,000 men, under Colonel Henry Chauncey, Jr., arrived and went to the park a short time later.

After seven hours of almost continuous maneuvering, in which was exemplified almost every phase of military tactics, General Burt commanding the First brigade, was outlasted by the Second and Third brigades, which were pitted against him. The First brigade was composed of the First Ohio, Fifth Illinois and Third Wisconsin. The Second was commanded by General Compton and composed of the Fourth Ohio, Third Illinois and Fourth Pennsylvania; the Third, commanded by General Hulings, and composed of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana and Second Wisconsin.

A serious casualty occurred during the progress of the battle, Lieutenant Batty of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, in command of a squad, was surrounded by Company C of the First Ohio regiment, and was ordered to surrender. Instead of surrendering, Lieutenant Batty ordered a bayonet charge. While at close range, a member of the Ohio command shot directly at Lieutenant Batty, the charge striking him in the face and neck, inflicting painful and serious injuries. Both eyes were badly injured, and the vision may be destroyed. Bad blood was engendered by the incident, and the men rushed together. It was only by the coolness and presence of mind of officers that bloodshed was avoided.

QUOTA OF OHIO.

Will Be 4,412—May Be Nearly Filled by Recruiting to War Strength.

COLUMBUS, May 26.—Governor Bushnell received official notice that under the call of the president for 75,000 additional troops the quota of Ohio would be 4,412 men. Adjutant General Axline says if he is permitted to fill up the Ohio national guard to the war strength he can furnish 4,320 infantrymen in this way alone. Of the regiments already sent away only the Eighth and the Fourth (the old Fourteenth) have the full 12 companies.

The Third and Fifth are short two companies each and the others one each. This makes nine companies, or 954 men if the war strength of 106 men to the company is allowed. The 99 companies already sent out have only 72 men each, when they should have 106 each, a shortage of 34 men to the company, or 3,366 men for the whole 99 companies. Added to this the 954 men in the nine companies now being organized make the 4,320.

In addition the state has the three batteries of light artillery, which were not taken on the first call, and will soon have in the guard the Cleveland Grays, a corps of three companies of engineers. The troops will be mobilized at Camp Bushnell.

The office of the governor was besieged with eager volunteers. Company A of Columbus, 105 men, Captain Fayling commanding, reported to the governor within a half hour after the notice of the call was posted on the bulletin board.

UNION REFORM PARTY.

Populists and Other Parties Form a Political Organization at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, May 26.—The Populists, the Liberty party, the Social-Labor, the Free Silver Republicans and the Negro Protective party had a mass-convention in the Great Southern theater and succeeded in forming what they will call the Union Reform party. In their declaration of principles they took but the one stand and that for the initiative and referendum form of government. The preamble to the resolutions was long, it taking up a major part of the space in reciting the wrongs to which the people of the country are subject at this time.

The strength of three of the parties was stated to be: Populists, 140; Free Silver Republicans, 94, and the Liberty party, 132. It has been shown that in the state all combined they polled last fall a vote of 14,104 votes, or about 1 1/2 per cent of the total vote cast in the state. They named their ticket, which is as follows:

For secretary of state, James A. Craft of Cincinnati; for member of the board of public works, David W. Clark of Cincinnati; judge of the supreme court, Jackson S. Wertman of Ashland county; for clerk of the supreme court, Martin Krum of Columbus; for dairy and food commissioner, Seth H. Ellis of Springboro.

In the evening the executive committee met and selected R. S. Thompson of Springfield as the chairman, and secretary, T. J. Creager of the same place.

It is the intention of the new party to try and make the movement national.

WANTS ROWAN PROMOTED.

General Miles Recommends Recognition of His Recent Service.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—General Miles has recommended to Secretary Alger that First Lieutenant A. S. Rowan of the Nineteenth infantry be promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel. This General Miles does as a recognition of the valuable services performed by Lieutenant Rowan in his recent perilous mission to Cuba, and secured valuable information for the United States government.

Eulogies on Senator George.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—After the passage of a bill granting certain public lands to the territory of New Mexico, the house devoted the session to eulogies upon the late Senator George of Mississippi.

M'GIFERT CASE.

Reports Made to the Presbyterian General Assembly.

HIS TEACHINGS CONDEMNED

Majority Report Recommends No Action Be Taken.

TIME NEEDED TO SAVE SOULS.

First Minority Report Desired That the Matter Be Referred to the Presbytery of New York For Action and Settlement—The Second Minority Report Recommends That No Action Be Taken. Devotional Exercises Conducted by Rev. William Wallace of Mexico—A Resolution Adopted Expressing Cordial Sympathy With Relief Work Among the Men Engaged in War With Spain—Report on Foreign Missions Made.

WINONA LAKE, Ind., May 26.—The McGiffert case came before the Presbyterian general assembly on reports from the committee on bills and overtures, late yesterday afternoon. Of these there were three, the majority, and two minority reports. The first advises that the assembly take no action, but leave it to Prof. McGiffert to explain his position or retire from the Presbyterian ministry. The first minority report desires that the matter be referred to the presbytery of New York for action and settlement. The second minority report recommends no action, but condemns the alleged erroneous teaching of the New York professor. The ground is taken by the first and third reports that the church should address itself to saving the souls of men, instead of going into heresy proceedings.

The majority report was signed by 13 members of the committee, the first minority report by six and the second minority report by one member. The reports were ordered printed and the subject was made the first order of business for tomorrow afternoon.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. William Wallace of Mexico. A resolution was adopted expressing the cordial sympathy of the general assembly with the national relief commission and similar associations, having in view the welfare of the soldiers, sailors and marines engaged in the present war with Spain. The regular order of the day was foreign missions. Dr. George F. Pentecost of Yorkers, N. Y., chairman of the standing committee, presented a report and addressed the assembly.

The report on foreign missions said the fiscal year began with a debt of $97,454, but this and all other obligations had been met. Appropriations had been reduced $100,000, and thus the debt which had existed in varying amounts since 1893 had been extinguished. The gifts to the board from the women's board had increased by 28, but there had been 30 deaths or resignations. Reports from all the fields were encouraging, in spite of the fact that retrenchment had told heavily upon the schools, some of which had been closed. The receipts were: From churches, $292,632; women's board, $312,377; Sunday schools, $38,209; young people's societies, $10,013; legacies, $75,940; miscellaneous donations, $72,610; interest on investments, etc., $97,513; contributions to meet debt of 1897, $79,738; total, $970,125.

The disbursements were $864,702, of which $56,051 was for office expenses, part of them at the direction of the general assembly. The interest of board in the Presbyterian building in New York amounts to one-half, or $833,597, representing a cash investment of $272,597, and mortgages of $610,000. The actual loss in the operation of the building the past year was $6,600, but if the building was entirely rented there would be a credit balance above all expenses of $6,400. The board holds certain trust funds, of a par value as follows: Securities in general fund, $244,430; unacknowledged in process of collection, $32,302; permanent endowments of special objects, $52,304; other special endowments, $427,611.

Mr. Robert E. Speer, secretary of the board, presented the scope of the work in foreign lands.

Mr. Speer said that the church had not risen to its duty and had not maintained its rate of increase during previous decades. Contributions last year were less than those of ten years ago by $20,000. From the first place in the amount of funds used the Presbyterian church has fallen to second, having fallen behind the Methodist churches. The speech was a strong plea for an increase in the receipts of and an eloquent appeal for renewed contributions to its work. At the close, the speaker was greeted by prolonged applause. The foreign missionaries, who are commissioners to the assembly, were called to the platform. About 20 responded and representatives from India, Persia, Japan and Korea occupied considerable time.

Rev. Father Carroll Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 26.—Rev. Thos.

Carroll for the past 42 years a priest and for 28 years rector of St. Joseph's parish, this city, has died of Bright's disease. He served as a volunteer chaplain in the Union army from the beginning of the war of the rebellion until after the battle of Gettysburg in 1864, when he was taken sick with the fever and sent north.

75,000 MORE TROOPS.

The President Issues a Proclamation Calling For Additional Volunteers.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The president issued the following proclamation: By the President of the United States.

A Proclamation: Whereas, An act of congress was approved on April 25, 1898, entitled "an act declaring that war exists between the United States of America and the kingdom of Spain," and

Whereas, by an act of congress entitled "an act to provide for temporarily increasing the military establishment of the United States in time of war and for other purposes," approved April 22, 1898; the president is authorized, in order to raise a volunteer army, to issue his proclamation calling for volunteers to serve in the army of the United States.

Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, by virtue of the power vested in me by the constitution and the laws, and deeming sufficient occasion to exist, have thought fit to call forth and hereby do call forth, volunteers to the aggregate number of 75,000 in addition to the volunteers called forth by my proclamation of the twenty-third day of April, in the present year; the same to be apportioned, as far as practicable, among the several states and territories and the District of Columbia, according to population, and to serve for two years unless sooner discharged. The proportion of each arm and the details of enlistment and organization will be made known through the war department.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 25th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-second.

WILLIAM McKINLEY,

By the President.

WILLIAM R. DAY,

Secretary of State.

Secretary Alger said that the additional volunteers called for will not be recruited from the national guard, as were the first 150,000, but that the enlistments will be open. The regulations referred to in the proclamation under which the enlistment will be conducted have not yet been prepared and it is thought that there is no occasion for hurry in the matter until the full draft called for in the first proclamation has been secured.

The call, it is supposed here, indicates a determination to press the campaign actively and vigorously from now on.

LISBON NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—The first American army to sail for a foreign shore is now in the broad Pacific enroute to Manila.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Brigadier General Anderson signalled from the Australia for the City of Peking and the City of Sydney to get under way. The signal was seen from the shore and the waiting crowds commenced to cheer wildly. They knew what it meant as well as the sea captains for whom the signal was intended. No time was lost on board the transports. The crews worked with a will and in a short time the anchors were up and the vessels were under way. Then the 2,500 soldiers who had been patiently awaiting the signal to start let themselves loose. They climbed up the rigging and swarmed all over the big ships, shouting and cheering like mad. The noise made by patriotic citizens on sea and shore was something terrific. Every steam whistle in the city appeared to be blowing, cannon were fired, and the din lasted for fully an hour.

As the Australia passed Alcatraz island and in the lead of the other ships, the battery of United States artillery stationed there fired a salute to General Anderson. The colors were dipped in recognition and the steamships sounded their sirens. The boats, small and large, followed as the transports moved slowly forward and not until the heavy swells of the Pacific were encountered did they turn back. It was shortly after 5 o'clock when the vessels entered the ocean and the sun glinting over the sea gave the departing soldiers a last view of the country to fight for the honor of which they were sailing over 6,000 miles. When last seen the transports were steaming slowly to the southwest. After the pilots were dropped the vessels went ahead at full speed and in six days, if all goes well, they will enter Honolulu harbor and join the Charleston.

It is thought here that the fleet will not keep company with the Charleston after leaving Honolulu. They all carry enough coal to steam at full speed from Honolulu to Manila, while the Charleston in order to economize coal will not go faster than ten knots an hour. If the transports do not wait for the cruiser they may be expected to arrive at Manila about June 20.

The three transports carried close on to 2,500 men.

MARTYRED MISSIONARY.

Refused to Shoot Hostile Natives—Story of the Murder of Americans in Africa.

LONDON, May 26.—A letter received in this city from Sierra Leone, west coast of Africa, says that a Mendina native who was with the American missionaries at Rotfunk when they were massacred by the insurgents, but who made his escape by resuming his native garb, furnishes the following account of the tragedy:

"We started to walk to Sierra Leone, but had gone only half a mile when we met war boys who blocked the way. Rev. Mr. Cain tried to frighten them by firing a revolver over their heads, but seeing they were determined to do mischief, he cast his revolver away and said he would not have anybody's blood on his hands. The war boys then seized the party, including Misses Hatfield, Archer and Kent (Shenk), stripped them of their clothing, dragged them back to the mission house, in front of which the war boys cut down Rev. Mr. Cain and then treated Miss Archer and Miss Kent (Shenk) in the same way. Miss Hatfield, who was very ill, was thrown on a barbed wire netting and finally her throat was cut. Miss Cain escaped to the bush with a native girl, but the war boys went out seeking for them and they were afterwards killed."

The Weather.

The disbursements were $864,702, of which $56,051 was for office expenses, part of them at the direction of the general assembly. The interest of board in the Presbyterian building in New York amounts to one-half, or $833,597, representing a cash investment of $272,597, and mortgages of $610,000. The actual loss in the operation of the building the past year was $6,600, but if the building was entirely rented there would be a credit balance above all expenses of $6,400. The board holds certain trust funds, of a par value as follows: Securities in general fund, $244,430; unacknowledged in process of collection, $32,302; permanent endowments of special objects, $52,304; other special endowments, $427,611.

Mr. Robert E. Speer, secretary of the board, presented the scope of the work in foreign lands.

Mr. Speer said that the church had not risen to its duty and had not maintained its rate of increase during previous decades. Contributions last year were less than those of ten years ago by $20,000. From the first place in the amount of funds used the Presbyterian church has fallen to second, having fallen behind the Methodist churches. The speech was a strong plea for an increase in the receipts of and an eloquent appeal for renewed contributions to its work. At the close, the speaker was greeted by prolonged applause. The foreign missionaries, who are commissioners to the assembly, were called to the platform. About 20 responded and representatives from India, Persia, Japan and Korea occupied considerable time.

Rev. Father Carroll Dead.

OIL CITY, Pa., May 26.—Rev. Thos.

Carroll for the past 42 years a priest and for 28 years rector of St. Joseph's parish, this city, has died of Bright's disease. He served as a volunteer chaplain in the Union army from the beginning of the war of the rebellion until after the battle of Gettysburg in 1864, when he was taken sick with the fever and sent north.

75,000 MORE TROOPS.

The President Issues a Proclamation Calling For Additional Volunteers.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The president issued the following proclamation: By the President of the United States.

A Proclamation: Whereas, An act of congress was approved on April 25, 1898, entitled "an act declaring that war exists between the United States of America and the kingdom of Spain," and

Whereas, by an act of congress entitled "an act to provide for temporarily increasing the military establishment of the United States in time of war and for other purposes," approved April 22, 1898; the president is authorized in order to raise a volunteer army, to issue his proclamation calling for volunteers to serve in the army of the United States.

Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, by virtue of the power vested in me by the constitution and the laws, and deeming sufficient occasion to exist, have thought fit to call forth and hereby do call forth, volunteers to the aggregate number of 75,000 in addition to the volunteers called forth by my proclamation of the twenty-third day of April, in the present year; the same to be apportioned, as far as practicable, among the several states and territories and the District of Columbia, according to population, and to serve for two years unless sooner discharged. The proportion of each arm and the details of enlistment and organization will be made known through the war department.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 25th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-second.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY,

By the President.

WILLIAM R. DAY,

Secretary of State.

Secretary Alger said that the additional volunteers called for will not be recruited from the national guard, as were the first 150,000, but that the enlistments will be open. The regulations referred to in the proclamation under which the enlistment will be conducted have not yet been prepared and it is thought that there is no occasion for hurry in the matter until the full draft called for in the first proclamation has been secured.

The call, it is supposed here, indicates a determination to press the campaign actively and vigorously from now on.

LISBON NEWS.

A Few Cases Were Disposed of In Court.

LISBON, May 26.—[Special]—In the case of Anna Hamilton against Sarah Morgan, over a boundary line dispute, the jury found for the defendant. The parties reside here. At the close of the case the jury were excused until Monday, June 6, at 1 p. m.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—The first American army to sail for a foreign shore is now in the broad Pacific enroute to Manila.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Brigadier General Anderson signalled from the Australia for the City of Pekin and the City of Sydney to get under way. The signal was seen from the shore and the waiting crowds commenced to cheer wildly. They knew what it meant as well as the sea captains for whom the signal was intended. No time was lost on board the transports. The crews worked with a will and in a short time the anchors were up and the vessels were under way. Then the 2,500 soldiers who had been patiently awaiting the signal to start let themselves loose. They climbed up the rigging and swarmed all over the big ships, shouting and cheering like mad. The noise made by patriotic citizens on sea and shore was something terrific. Every steam whistle in the city appeared to be blowing, cannon were fired, and the din lasted for fully an hour.

As the Australia passed Alcatraz island and in the lead of the other ships, the battery of United States artillery stationed there fired a salute to General Anderson. The colors were dipped in recognition and the steamships sounded their sirens. The boats, small and large, followed as the transports moved slowly forward and not until the heavy swells of the Pacific were encountered did they turn back. It was shortly after 5 o'clock when the vessels entered the ocean and the sun glinting over the sea gave the departing soldiers a last view of the country to fight for the honor of which they were sailing over 6,000 miles. When last seen the transports were steaming slowly to the southwest. After the pilots were dropped the vessels went ahead at full speed and in six days, if all goes well, they will enter Honolulu harbor and join the Charleston.

It is thought here that the fleet will not keep company with the Charleston after leaving Honolulu. They all carry enough coal to steam at full speed from Honolulu to Manila, while the Charleston in order to economize coal will not go faster than ten knots an hour. If the transports do not wait for the cruiser they may be expected to arrive at Manila about June 20.

The three transports carried close on to 2,500 men.

MARTYRED MISSIONARY.

Refused to Shoot Hostile Natives—Story of the Murder of Americans In Africa.

LONDON, May 26.—A letter received in this city from Sierra Leone, west coast of Africa, says that a Mendina native who was with the American missionaries at Rotfunk when they were massacred by the insurgents, but who made his escape by resuming his native garb, furnishes the following account of the tragedy:

"We started to walk to Sierra Leone, but had gone only half a mile when we met war boys who blocked the way. Rev. Mr. Cain tried to frighten them by firing a revolver over their heads, but seeing they were determined to do mischief, he cast his revolver away and said he would not have anybody's blood on his hands. The war boys then seized the party, including Misses Hatfield, Archer and Kent (Shenk), stripped them of their clothing, dragged them back to the mission house, in front of which the war boys cut down Rev. Mr. Cain and then hacked him to death and then treated Miss Archer and Miss Kent (Shenk) in the same way. Miss Hatfield, who was very ill, was thrown on a barbed wire netting and finally her throat was cut. Miss Cain escaped to the bush with a native girl, but the war boys went out seeking for them and they were afterwards killed."

THE PEOPLE ARE SHY

Because They Think School Enumerator Grosshans

IS THE RECRUITING OFFICER

Who Will List Them For Service In the United States Army—The Work Is Progressing Rapidly and Will Be Completed by Saturday Evening.

George Grosshans, who is at present taking the school enumeration, will complete his work in a few days and report to Clerk Norris of the board of education.

It is the opinion of the enumerator that his work will show a slight increase in children of school age, although he says it is wonderful the number of young people under 21 years of age who have been married since the enumeration was taken last July. A greater part of the number lost is made up by young people who have recently come to the city to work and board here. In one boarding house he found six girls who work in the potteries and five of the number are under 21 years of age.

He has not had as much trouble as usual in getting people to tell how many children of school age they have, although in some cases the people have refused to answer his questions, but the enumerator has remained with them until he found what he wanted to know.

The greatest fault he has to find this year is the fact that in many instances he has been taken for a recruiting officer, and people have absolutely refused to answer his questions. They think he is endeavoring to find out how many people are available for the army, and do not propose to have their sons go to the front if it is possible for them to stay at home. The enumerator finds it a very hard matter to explain the matter to this class of people, and has become so disgusted with his job that he says he has gone out of the business and will take no more enumerations.

On the River.

The river is still falling and the marks at the wharf at noon registered 11 feet. There has been a slight rainfall in the upper valley, but it was not large enough to cause any material change in the marks.

Only three coal boats went down yesterday. They were the Charlie Brown, Pacific and Volunteer.

The Queen City went down last night and the Ben Hur and Urania will be down tonight. The Lorena, Will J. Cummins and the Bedford were up today. All the packets are doing a good business.

A PRISON IN MEXICO.

CURIOUS CUSTOMS THAT PREVAIL IN BELEM JAIL.

Musical Instruments In the Cells and a Concert Almost Every Evening by the Prisoners—Dinner Hour Marked by a Curious Spectacle.

Among the various uses to which Mexico has put some of her old monasteries and convents is that of serving for the incarceration of violators of the law. The Convento de Belem at Mexico City has become, in common parlance, Belem, the city jail and prison, accused and convicted persons, men, women and children alike being confined there in different compartments. The building was put up by the Spanish governor in 1686, as an inscription at the head of the main stairway tells. A casual visit paid it by a reporter of The Mexican Herald reveals a condition of prison management in Mexico worthy of passing attention in the days of prison reform associations and international prison congresses.

The Herald said that Belem had been commonly spoken of as a second Black Hole of Calcutta, but the reporter found that the prison was kept in a state of comparative cleanliness; not so, however, the prisoners. Their condition he described as one of disgusting filthiness. Although there was a hydrant in every cell and general bathing facilities in each compartment, the reporter found only one inmate either at bath or with any indication of having bathed within a year. It was explained to him by the prison authorities that formerly the regulations required prisoners to bathe daily, but that this was regarded as such a hardship that the sufferers managed to have it declared a form of cruel and unusual punishment and so to have the rule abrogated. There are in the prison now 3,451 prisoners, of whom 2,933 are men and 518 are women.

A curious feature found by the reporter was the Spanish regard for the arts, even within prison walls. He found in the south wing the writers of libel, "and the cells reserved for musicians, artists and others of the fine arts." It would seem to be a charitable as well as an inclusive provision, that "and others" (besides artists) of the fine arts. The musicians are permitted, apparently, to take their instruments to jail with them, much as mechanics take into the prison workshop their own tools of trade. "The walls of the musicians' cells are decorated with different musical instruments, and the reporter was told that almost every evening there was a concert in one of the patios."

Men sometimes do in Mexico what in this colder clime they content themselves with wishing done, for the reporter came upon one Adams, under sentence of 20 years "for killing a waiter at the Club de la Opera because he did not bring his dinner quick enough." Adams has the freedom of his galley. There are in each galley three trustees who go about with clubs and preserve order, using the club "only when moral suasion will not do as well."

There were stoics among the 57 men condemned to death. One of these, under sentence for assassinating a man, expressed his serene confidence as to his future, but, "if worst comes to worst"—a shrug of the shoulders and palms up. This man and some others under death sentence had the run of the commandant's offices, notwithstanding there were on the walls, serving as decorations, confiscated weapons of prisoners. Oddly enough, as it would seem in this country, though it wouldn't have been strange in the Italy of Machiavelli, there wasn't a gun among these. The nearest to it was a bayonet, and the rest were poinards, scimiters, stilettos, butcher knives, table knives, penknives, and shoemakers' knives.

The dinner hour was marked by a curious spectacle. The street outside the prison was filled with the "wives, children, dogs and other members of the prisoners' households." These brought baskets of edibles to the prisoners, some of whom were permitted to speak to their relatives through a grating. To the convicts not permitted to come to the grating, their relatives were allowed to send in notes accompanying the dinner baskets. This privilege had given rise to a peculiar way of making a few pennies among persons able to write—"itinerant scribes who for a cent or two wrote messages to the prisoners." One woman made the scribe to put her message in red ink. She would have none of the "purple stuff."

"Tell him," said she, "that I send him two little tamales and tell him that la perrita died yesterday."

Says the reporter, "And the scribe, leaning under the shade of his umbrella, sitting on a rock, with his bottle of red ink on another rock beside him, worked away assiduously, with an etymology all his own, beginning paragraphs with lower case letters and putting in caps in the most unexpected places, so that it would take an Ignatius Donnelly cryptogram to decipher the meaning of his hieroglyphics."

TWO MURDERS IN KEY WEST.

Citizens Want Martial Law Declared. Forsythe Asks For Marines.

KEY WEST, May 26.—While William Carne, a seaman on the auxiliary gunboat Morrill, and Vladimir Ich-nitski, a sailor of another gunboat, were sitting in a Cuban coffee shop Wednesday night, Charles Kitchen, a local negro, shot the Russian, inflicting a wound from which he died at the hospital a few hours later. A second shot grazed Carne's forehead and as the latter leaped to his feet, the negro closed in upon him and beat him on the head with the butt of his rifle until the stock of the weapon broke and the sailor lay senseless. The crowd that witnessed the affair made no attempt to interfere and Kitchen escaped.

Sheriff Knight organized a posse and Kitchen was found in a lot, but dashed into a doorway and escaped through the house.

The exact cause of the shooting is uncertain, but is said to have been Kitchen's jealousy of his wife.

John J. Dorsey, a reputable machinist of Manatee Fla., about 55 years of age, was found dead in a vacant lot near the Key West hotel. He had been murdered and robbed.

Following a lively drinking bout in a tavern a few yards from the lot where his body was found, Dorsey left the place and was followed by Charles Wallace, a coachman and leader of the "Bottle gang," an organization of young Key West toughs. Wallace was arrested.

Commander Forsythe has already asked for a guard of 25 marines to protect the naval station and government dock and strong efforts are being made by citizens to have martial law declared.

MAY DELAY THE WAR BILL.

Objections Raised in the Senate to Fixing a Time to Vote.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. Allison (Ia.), in charge of the war revenue bill in the senate, endeavored to secure yesterday unanimous consent that a final vote on the measure be taken on Saturday next before adjournment. Mr. Teller (Col.) objected. Mr. Daniel (Va.) in reiterating Mr. Teller's objection sounded the first note of delay against the measure that has been heard since the debate upon it began. He declared that there was no emergency which required the immediate passage of the bill, and frankly announced that if certain provisions of the bill put into it by the Democrats on the finance committee were not agreed to by the senate he would offer some amendments to the measure that probably would precipitate debate.

He strongly intimated, too, that if the war should not be prolonged it might not be necessary to provide so much revenue as the pending bill would raise, and he indicated a desire to await developments that in all likelihood were close at hand before passing upon a bill that meant so much to the people as this one.

THE OREGON REPORTED.

Secretary Long Received Word of Her Arrival at Jupiter, Fla.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Long has received an official dispatch announcing the arrival of the battleship Oregon in Jupiter Inlet, Fla. Her safe arrival in the inlet was reported immediately to the president.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A special dispatch from Jupiter, Fla., says that Lieutenant A. E. Davis of the battleship Oregon said:

"Our race was a most exciting one, especially after we left Bahia, for we then knew of the possibility of interception. Captain Clark, however, kept the little fleet in constant readiness, and had we run into the Spanish fleet we would have been heard from. As it is, we are all happy that our race from San Francisco is now ended, and that we have a chance to take part with the fleets now looking for the Spaniards."

The Marietta and Buffalo are with the Oregon.

TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES.

British and United States Officials Holding Conferences in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The negotiations designed to bring about a settlement of all controversies between the United States and Canada were begun at the state department when Sir Julian Pauncefote and Sir Louis Davies called upon the president at the executive mansion. After a brief exchange of courtesies Sir Julian and Sir Louis proceeded to the state department and made a formal official call upon Secretary Day.

Immediately afterward, the first formal conference between the representatives of Great Britain and Canada and those of the United States, General John W. Foster and Hon. John A. Kasson, reciprocity commissioner, was held in General Foster's office.

BERLIN, May 26.—It is semi-officially denied that there is any truth in the story from Manila regarding the German consul threatening Rear Admiral Dewey.

Montijo Reported Sentenced.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A cablegram from Hongkong says in part that it is reported that the lieutenant who commanded the Callao here has been shot by a summary court martial, and that Admiral Montijo has also been sentenced by court martial, but the reports are not considered accurate.

A PRISON IN MEXICO.

CURIOUS CUSTOMS THAT PREVAIL IN BELEM JAIL.

Musical Instruments In the Cells and a Concert Almost Every Evening by the Prisoners—Dinner Hour Marked by a Curious Spectacle.

Among the various uses to which Mexico has put some of her old monasteries and convents is that of serving for the incarceration of violators of the law. The Convento de Belem at Mexico City has become, in common parlance, Belem, the city jail and prison, accused and convicted persons, men, women and children alike being confined there in different compartments. The building was put up by the Spanish governor in 1686, as an inscription at the head of the main stairway tells. A casual visit paid it by a reporter of The Mexican Herald reveals a condition of prison management in Mexico worthy of passing attention in the days of prison reform associations and international prison congresses.

The Herald said that Belem had been commonly spoken of as a second Black Hole of Calcutta, but the reporter found that the prison was kept in a state of comparative cleanliness; not so, however, the prisoners. Their condition he described as one of disgusting filthiness. Although there was a hydrant in every cell and general bathing facilities in each compartment, the reporter found only one inmate either at bath or with any indication of having bathed within a year. It was explained to him by the prison authorities that formerly the regulations required prisoners to bathe daily, but that this was regarded as such a hardship that the sufferers managed to have it declared a form of cruel and unusual punishment and so to have the rule abrogated. There are in the prison now 3,451 prisoners, of whom 2,933 are men and 518 are women.

A curious feature found by the reporter was the Spanish regard for the arts, even within prison walls. He found in the south wing the writers of libel, "and the cells reserved for musicians, artists and others of the fine arts." It would seem to be a charitable as well as an inclusive provision, that "and others" (besides artists) of the fine arts. The musicians are permitted, apparently, to take their instruments to jail with them, much as mechanics take into the prison workshop their own tools of trade. "The walls of the musicians' cells are decorated with different musical instruments, and the reporter was told that almost every evening there was a concert in one of the patios."

Men sometimes do in Mexico what in this colder clime they content themselves with wishing done, for the reporter came upon one Adams, under sentence of 20 years "for killing a waiter at the Club de la Opera because he did not bring his dinner quick enough." Adams has the freedom of his galley. There are in each galley three trustees who go about with clubs and preserve order, using the club "only when moral suasion will not do as well."

There were stoics among the 57 men condemned to death. One of these, under sentence for assassinating a man, expressed his serene confidence as to his future, but, "if worst comes to worst"—a shrug of the shoulders and palms up. This man and some others under death sentence had the run of the commandant's offices, notwithstanding there were on the walls, serving as decorations, confiscated weapons of prisoners. Oddly enough, as it would seem in this country, though it wouldn't have been strange in the Italy of Machiavelli, there wasn't a gun among these. The nearest to it was a bayonet, and the rest were poinards, scimiters, stilettos, and shoemakers' knives.

The dinner hour was marked by a curious spectacle. The street outside the prison was filled with the "wives, children, dogs and other members of the prisoners' households." These brought baskets of edibles to the prisoners, some of whom were permitted to speak to their relatives through a grating. To the convicts not permitted to come to the grating, their relatives were allowed to send in notes accompanying the dinner baskets. This privilege had given rise to a peculiar way of making a few pennies among persons able to write—"itinerant scribes who for a cent or two wrote messages to the prisoners." One woman bade the scribe to put her message in red ink. She would have none of the "purple stuff."

Says the reporter, "And the scribe, leaning under the shade of his umbrella, sitting on a rock, with his bottle of red ink on another rock beside him, worked away assiduously, with an etymology all his own, beginning paragraphs with lower case letters and putting in caps in the most unexpected places, so that it would take an Ignatius Donnelly cryptogram to decipher the meaning of his hieroglyphics."

Misapprehension.

TWO MURDERS IN KEY WEST.

Citizens Want Martial Law Declared. Forsythe Asks For Marines.

KEY WEST, May 26.—While William Carne, a seaman on the auxiliary gunboat Morrill, and Vladimir Ich-nitski, a sailor of another gunboat, were sitting in a Cuban coffee shop Wednesday night, Charles Kitchen, a local negro, shot the Russian, inflicting a wound from which he died at the hospital a few hours later. A second shot grazed Carne's forehead and as the latter leaped to his feet, the negro closed in upon him and beat him on the head with the butt of his rifle until the stock of the weapon broke and the sailor lay senseless. The crowd that witnessed the affair made no attempt to interfere and Kitchen escaped.

Sheriff Knight organized a posse and Kitchen was found in a lot, but dashed into a doorway and escaped through the house.

The exact cause of the shooting is uncertain, but is said to have been Kitchen's jealousy of his wife.

John J. Dorsey, a reputable machinist of Manatee Fla., about 55 years of age, was found dead in a vacant lot near the Key West hotel. He had been murdered and robbed.

Following a lively drinking bout in a tavern a few yards from the lot where his body was found, Dorsey left the place and was followed by Charles Wallace, a coachman and leader of the "Bottle gang," an organization of young Key West toughs. Wallace was arrested.

Commander Forsythe has already asked for a guard of 25 marines to protect the naval station and government dock and strong efforts are being made by citizens to have martial law declared.

MAY DELAY THE WAR BILL.

Objections Raised In the Senate to Fixing a Time to Vote.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. Allison (Ia.), in charge of the war revenue bill in the senate, endeavored to secure yesterday unanimous consent that a final vote on the measure be taken on Saturday next before adjournment. Mr. Teller (Col.) objected. Mr. Daniel (Va.) in reiterating Mr. Teller's objection sounded the first note of delay against the measure that has been heard since the debate upon it began. He declared that there was no emergency which required the immediate passage of the bill, and frankly announced that if certain provisions of the bill put into it by the Democrats on the finance committee were not agreed to by the senate he would offer some amendments to the measure that probably would precipitate debate.

He strongly intimated, too, that if the war should not be prolonged it might not be necessary to provide so much revenue as the pending bill would raise, and he indicated a desire to await developments that in all likelihood were close at hand before passing upon a bill that meant so much to the people as this one.

THE OREGON REPORTED.

Secretary Long Received Word of Her Arrival at Jupiter, Fla.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Long has received an official dispatch announcing the arrival of the battleship Oregon in Jupiter Inlet, Fla. Her safe arrival in the inlet was reported immediately to the president.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A special dispatch from Jupiter, Fla., says that Lieutenant A. E. Davis of the battleship Oregon said:

"Our race was a most exciting one, especially after we left Bahia, for we then knew of the possibility of interception. Captain Clark, however, kept the little fleet in constant readiness, and had we run into the Spanish fleet we would have been heard from. As it is, we are all happy that our race from San Francisco is now ended, and that we have a chance to take part with the fleets now looking for the Spaniards."

The Marietta and Buffalo are with the Oregon.

TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES.

British and United States Officials Holding Conferences in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The negotiations designed to bring about a settlement of all controversies between the United States and Canada were begun at the state department when Sir Julian Pauncefote and Sir Louis Davies called upon the president at the executive mansion. After a brief exchange of courtesies Sir Julian and Sir Louis proceeded to the state department and made a formal official call upon Secretary Day.

Immediately afterward, the first formal conference between the representatives of Great Britain and Canada and those of the United States, General John W. Foster and Hon. John A. Kasson, reciprocity commissioner, was held in General Foster's office.

Denied by Germany.

BERLIN, May 26.—It is semi-officially denied that there is any truth in the story from Manila regarding the German consul threatening Rear Admiral Dewey.

Montijo Reported Sentenced.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A cablegram from Hongkong says in part that it is reported that the lieutenant who commanded the Callao here has been shot by a summary court martial, and that Admiral Montijo has also been sentenced by court martial, but the reports are not considered accurate.

Austrian Cruisers Coming.

LONDON, May 26.—According to a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Gibraltar the Austrian cruiser Kaiser Franz Joseph I has arrived there and tomorrow will sail for Cuban waters with the armored cruiser Kaserin Maria Theresa.

PAY OF THE TROOPS

Ohio Soldiers Will All Get Their Money, BUT NOT FOR A FEW WEEKS

General Axline Points Out the Reasons Why the Money Has Not Been Already Sent, and Explains That the Government Is Responsible.

Ohio soldiers think the money that is due them from the time they were in camp at Columbus should be paid at once.

The men have been complaining considerably of late. Their complaints started, in fact, before they left Columbus and have kept up ever since. They point to other states, and say they paid their men before they went to camp and allowed them money for the time they were in the service of the state. Further than this they hold that Ohio has appropriated $1,000,000 for the purpose of putting the state on a war footing, and out of that fund the soldiers ought to be paid. They say this fund has been heavily drawn upon, and by right the men of the state should have the pay that is due them. They claim the maneuvering on the part of the state officials is but a subterfuge to escape paying a bill that is justly their own.

There is another side to this problem, however. It will be recalled that recently Auditor Guilbert was in Washington in consultation with the authorities there regarding the pay of the men, and they said they would pay all the bills from the time the men were called out. They said the men were at all times under their direction, and therefore they would have to pay them. Then the question of how much the men should be paid, whether $13 a month from the first or $2 a day, came up, and the authorities are now figuring on that and are in consultation with the authorities at Washington.

General Axline has been interviewed as to what he knew about the pay of the soldiers, if there was any prospect for their being paid at once. He said:

"There has been no date set when the men will be paid, but it is my best judgment they will get their money within the next ten days at the least. We are conferring upon this matter now and there are some things that have to be settled yet that will take time.

"There are a good many things about this that the general public do not know and one of them is the routine that must be gone through with before this pay can be secured. If the men will just be patient for a few days the matter will be straightened out all right. The war department officials have said they will pay for all the time the men spent in the camp here and we are in correspondence with them regarding the amount that is to be paid. The whole thing centers right here. The state might pay the bill and then act as the agent for the United States in doing so, but they would have to get their money back from the general government. If we would do that then it would take a special act of congress to reimburse the state and that might not be an easy matter. For instance, there have been bills of that kind from the states against the national government paid during the late war that have never been paid back yet. It has taken the congress 30 years and more to get around to that and we are working all the while to get them to do it, but it has not been done as yet.

"Now, say we would pay this bill and have to wait for all that time to get the money back. Would it not be better for the men to wait for a few days when the matter is not urgent, if it is sure, than to have the state wait until all the time they have on some of the other bills? Then we have in truth no right to pay a bill for the general government when we have not been ordered to do so, and that is one thing that is holding us back. There is a question here, of course, that is not easy to solve. Say the state should go ahead and pay the bill and then have the government say it would pay it back at once, as the state had not acted in accord with the order of the government, then the governor would be held responsible for the amount of money personally and I do not believe he is willing at this time to stand that risk. We know the men ought to be paid and they will be as soon as the war department can get around to that point, but it cannot be done until this matter is decided."

UNION PAPERS.
 All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above
 Union Label at the head of their columns.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, MAY 26.

JERRY SIMPSON wants to go to war as a Kansas colonel. If his request is granted he will have to wear leathers to keep the stirrups from chafing his poor old sockless feet.

It may be that General Merritt will be compelled to whip the insurgents as well as the Spanish when he reaches Manila, but there can be no denying his ultimate success. He is not made of the stuff which can relish defeat.

ADMIRAL DEWEY has been caring for himself very well since he so completely thrashed the Spaniards, but there is little doubt that he will be glad to see the American transports steam into Manila bay when they at last arrive.

SPAIN'S desperate effort to interest Europe in its behalf seems to be a fruitless hope. The powers are afraid to involve themselves in a little matter which might bring upon them the full fury of the American eagle and the British lion.

THERE seems to be some confusion as to whether Sampson or Schley is to whip the Spanish fleet, but on that score the American public has no choice. What it wants is to see the Spanish fleet sent to the bottom of the sea, or better still, the Stars and Stripes flying over every warship of the Cape Verde squadron.

OHIO'S QUOTA.

Governor Bushnell has been notified by the war department that Ohio's quota under the new call for troops is 4,412 men, and General Axline believes we can contribute that amount without organizing a new regiment. A number of regiments sent out at the first call were not to their war strength, and can now be filled. If the plan is carried out it means that many men who have been hoping for shoulder straps, bearing something more important than a pair of bars, will again suffer disappointment, while the hard working privates and company officers will get the new places.

PRESIDENT'S WAR POLICY.

Those people who have been industri-ously criticizing President McKinley on the ground that he was not sufficiently interested in the war to dictate a policy for its prosecution, can now content themselves in peace, for he has announced what on the surface appears to be a most vigorous policy. The President has nothing but plain American-ism on which to stand, and having planted his feet firmly on that platform, from which he was elected, he has since remained there, a splendid example of what one man can do when supported by the united strength of a great nation.

THE PRESIDENT'S CALL.

Possessed of information which has not reached the public, but which will doubtless find a place in history when the story of the war is written, President McKinley has called for 75,000 more volunteers. That he will get them goes without saying. Ohio alone would, if permitted, gladly contribute the number. There is no denying the sentiment of the people. It is for the annihilation of Spain, and if the accomplishment of that purpose requires the services of 75,- 000 men or five times that number the country will gladly respond. President McKinley knew the temperament of the people when he called for volunteers, but, with that wisdom which has marked his every step since the war began, he has considerably asked no more than the number needed.

Special Sale of Millinery.

 ably fine line of trimmed hats, sailors and flowers. These will be sold at unheard of bargains, the sale to continue until

ALL ARE OFFICERS NOW

Mayor Bough Swore In the New Policemen.

SOME FILED THEIR BONDS

From a Physical Standpoint It is the Best
 Force the City Ever Had—Officer Grim Gets the Best Place—Beats Not Decided On.

The city now has a police force that will undoubtedly do it credit.

Mayor Bough last evening swore in Jerry McMillan and M. Mahony and this morning A. Grim presented his bond and went through the same performance. Officer Whan has not yet filed his bond, but will do so today and the oath of office will then be administered to him.

Chief Johnson has not yet arranged the beats of the men, but two of them will go on at 12 noon and off at 12 midnight, while two others will go on at 6
 p. m. and off at 6 a. m., leaving one man for all day duty and this plum will fall to Officer Grim who will be used as an all round man. The officers will change beats every two weeks as is the custom. Millard Cochran was very desirous of securing day work, and was undecided whether to accept the position when sworn in but promised to give a definite answer by noon today.

The bondsmen of Millard Cochran are
 F. M. and O. H. Sebring; Jerry Mc-Millan, Mathew Andrews, W. N.
 Bailey; Arthur Grim, J. D. West,
 Smith Fowler; M. Mahoney, H. A.
 Keffer, Patrick McNicol.

From a physical standpoint the force is the largest the city ever had, as they average six feet in height and 175 pounds in weight.

Chairman Seckerson, of the police committee, yesterday ordered six maces, two revolvers, six nippers and six badges, so that the officers might be thoroughly provided with weapons.

Officers McMillan and Mahony were placed on the force at noon today, and Chief Johnson placed their hours of duty from 12 o'clock noon until 12 o'clock midnight. McMillan will look after the First and Second wards until 6 p. m., when he will devote his entire time to the First ward, as the other officers will then be on duty, and Officer
 Whan will look after the Second ward.

Officer Mahony will take care of the Third and Fourth wards until 6 o'clock in the evening, and will then spend the rest of his time in the Third ward.

Officer Whan will go on at 6 o'clock
 p. m., until 6 o'clock a. m., and will do duty in the Second ward.

The police committee will this evening
 have a caucus with Mayor Bough, Chief Johnson and the new officers, and arrangements will be made to purchase them uniforms. The committee will also be asked to have the ordinances printed in pamphlet form for use of the force.

Officer Cochran met with Mayor Bough today and decided to accept the position, provided that the officers changed beats every two weeks, and thus every man would get two weeks day duty instead of Officer Grimm getting it all as was the intention of Chief Johnson. The matter will be referred to the police committee to make satisfactory arrangements and see that every member of the force is accorded the same privileges, and one man does not receive the only soft snap.

THREE GLASSES OF WHISKY

Caused the Arrest of a Virginian Who Came to Town.

Only one arrest was made last night, and Chief Johnson made this. Charles Morgan, who lives four miles back of the river in Virginia, came to town yesterday, drank three glasses of whisky and was arrested. He was fined $5 and costs and was committed to jail until both are paid.

Chief Johnson said yesterday afternoon that no clues had been secured to the many recent robberies and if he had he would not tell any one.

Some of the people arrested for being implicated in a Second street saloon raid have not as yet paid their fines, but will do so before the end of the week.

Ice cream and cake 10 cents at First Presbyterian church tonight.

Special ribbon sale for one week. Elegant ribbons only 25c
 a yard at Mrs. Allison's.

The store of T. B. Murphy & Son will be open each evening this week until 8 o'clock. Day hours usual.

NOTICE

To the Republicans of the Eighteenth Congressional District of Ohio.

At a recent meeting of the Republican Congressional committee of said district representing all the counties composing the same—Stark, Mahoning and Colum-biana counties—it was decided to hold the next Republican convention to nominate a candidate for Congress, in the city of Alliance, Ohio, on the 15th day of June, 1898, said convention to be called to order at 11 o'clock a. m.

At the same time the committee decided that the basis of the representation shall be the Republican vote for governor in the year 1897, one delegate to every 100 Republican votes so cast for governor, and one delegate for every fraction thereof over 50 votes. It was also decided that, under this apportionment, Mahoning county is entitled to 64; Columbiana to 75, and Stark to 106 delegates.

Therefore, the Republicans of said counties are herewith requested to select, at such time and in such manner as may be deemed proper, the above number of delegates, and a like number of alternates to represent them in said convention.

ALLEN CARNES, Chairman.

I. B. CAMERON, Secretary.

Canton, O., May 21, 1898.

The candidates for congress having agreed between themselves, there will be no congressional delegates voted for in Columbiana county at the primary election June 4th, 1898.

The successful congressional candidate in the respective townships of this county will select delegates to represent them in the congressional convention to be held in Alliance, O., June 15, 1898.

There being but one candidate for circuit judge, there will be no judicial delegates voted for.

I. B. CAMERON, Chairman.

PRINTERS VOTE

For the Officers of the National Organization.

The election of officers of the International Typographical union, for whom the printers of this city voted Tuesday evening, resulted as follows:

For president, Samuel B. Donnelly, of New York, 19; first vice president, Samuel B. Leffingwell, Indianapolis, 7; second vice president, William P. Smith, Washington, D. C., 8; fourth vice president, J. S. Kinsey, Chicago, 10; sixth vice president, Charles A. Allen, Boston, 12; secretary-treasurer, J. W.
 Bramwood, Denver, 14; agent Childs-
 Drexel home, Joseph Evans, Pittsburg, 16; organizer, George W. Harris, Chicago, 10; delegate to American Federation of Labor, printers—John T. McCoy, Pittsburgh, 11; allied crafts—Thomas
 Morgan, Cincinnati, 9; trustee Childs-Drexel home, Cal Wyatt, Pittsburg, 18.

There were a number of candidates for each office, but the one receiving the majority of votes is given.

EXPLOSION ON THE BALTIMORE

Says the Latest Spanish Fairy Tale—No News From Any Other Force, Although Admiral Dewey Would Report an Accident—The Oregon Cast Anchor at Key West This Morning.

MADRID, May 26.—[Special]—The city was thrown into transports of joy this morning when it became known that an explosion had occurred on the United States cruiser Baltimore at Manila and great damage had been done.

The news came as a private dispatch, and was given credence without further investigation. It said the explosion had not only disabled the cruiser, but a number of the crew had been killed and others injured.

AT LAST

The Oregon Puts In at Key West With All Well.

KEY WEST, May 26.—[Special]—The battleship Oregon arrived here this morning, and is now at this port. All hands are well.

The Oregon arrived yesterday morning at Jupiter inlet, Florida, and left last night for this port, the officers refusing to be interviewed. It is not known where the vessel will go from this port.

THE QUEEN IS THERE.

She Refuses to Leave Madrid Although the Danger Is Great.

LONDON, May 26.—[Special]—A special from Madrid this afternoon, says that the defeat of the Spanish fleet in the West Indies is considered by the best informed as only the question of a few days. They also hold to the belief that news of defeat will cause a revolution, and near friends of the queen regent, and high officials, are advising her to fly from the capital. She steadily refuses, and says she will remain to the end.

ROBERT MOORE IN COURT

For Failing to Provide For His Wife and Family.

Mrs. Robert Moore, of Broadway, entered suit in Squire Hill's court this morning against her husband, Robert Moore, for non-support. The case is set for tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Last night Mrs. Moore entered the boarding house of Mrs. Reynolds, in Railroad street, while her husband was eating supper. He saw her coming in the back door and he went out the front as fast as possible. Mrs. Moore demanded meals for herself and children, but Mrs. Reynolds refused the woman, but said she would feed the children. A wordy war was the result which ended in the suit being entered.

THEIR OUTING.

Camping Clubs Are Preparing For the Usual Vacation.

The various camping clubs of the city are preparing for the summer outings. A number of clubs will go to New Philadelphia, while others will go down the river. The creeks will as usual see a large number of clubs. All are making preparations to go into camp the early part of July, and their stay depends upon the length of the annual shut-down.

THE PHOENIX BANQUET.

It Was an Unusually Pleasant Gathering.

In response to the call of the committee 25 members of the Phoenix club and Treasurer I. B. Cameron, appeared at the rooms of the organization last evening, and the result was one of the most pleasant of the many pleasant events in the history of the club.

After the banquet President G. H. Owen called the assemblage to order, and patriotic songs followed a speech by Mr. Cameron. Chas. E. Macrum, consul elect to Pretoria, Africa, was also called upon while other members were also guilty of appropriate remarks.

The evening's entertainment closed with the singing of other patriotic songs, and three cheers for Captain Hill and Lieutenants Anderson and Hall, of Company E, who are all members of the club.

DRANK FLY POISON

But a Physician Arrived In Time to Save the Child.

A 14-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nagel, of Sixth street, narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon by drinking fly poison. The child was crawling about the floor of the dining room when it saw a saucer in a corner. It drank the stuff, thinking it was water. Shortly afterwards the mother discovered what the child had done and hastily sent for a physician who administered an antidote, saving the little one's life.

HE GOT TWO HORSES

John Rinehart Appears In a New Role.

ONE CAPTURED IN STEUBENVILLE

He Was Deputized to Regain the Property and Was Successful—Particulars of a Case That Was Filed In Squire Hill's Court.

John Rinehart, of Second street figured in a new role yesterday, and his friends are now thinking of securing for him the position of detective.

Over two years ago D. S. Marshall, of Chester, gave a note endorsed by T. R. Cunningham for $101.65 and payable at the First National bank. The note was given for a year, and when it became due a renewal was made. Another year passed and Cunningham was compelled to pay the note.

Last Monday Cunningham went to the office of Justice Hill and commenced attachment proceedings against Marshall, although his whereabouts at that time were unknown. Marshall had three horses, and the attachment was made on these. John Rinehart was appointed special constable, and at once began to search for Marshall. He telephoned to Salem and located his man there. Rinehart was soon in that town and upon inquiry found one of Marshall's horses at the race track. An attendant said the horse was locked but he soon found a key and the horse was then exercised by Rinehart who said he thought he would buy it. He brought it back to the stable and the papers were served, and the animal brought to this place. Marshall, when he heard of this went to Steubenville where he had sent another horse. Rinehart went there, but as the horse was out of the county no papers could be served. Marshall was seen by Rinehart and was asked if he wanted to sell the horse. An agreement was reached whereby the horse was to be delivered at McLean Bros., in Wells-ville, last night, and the deal would be completed. Rinehart took the train from Steubenville, and Marshall drove up, arriving there last evening. Rinehart, after driving the horse about the town, told Marshall he would pay him immediately, but, instead of giving him any money, read the attachment papers.

The horses are now in this city, and will be sold at public sale to satisfy the claim of Cunningham.

Will Fresco the Walls.

Contractors are now at work measuring the walls and ceiling of the Central school building preparatory to bidding on the work of frescoing them.

The board of education have decided that the improvement was much needed, and work will be commenced as soon as possible.

PLEASANT RIDE IN A CABOOSE

Snow Capped Mountains In the Distance Looking Much Like Huge Tents—Chat With the Conductor—Grasping Every Opportunity to Break the Monotony.

RAWLINS, WYOMING, May 22—[On board the train.]—One does not always have an opportunity to address his friends from the cupola of a caboose, attached to the rear of a train on which a battalion of volunteer troops is being hastened to the Pacific shore. But that seems to be the condition just now, and however unconventional it may appear there is no denying that it will make a capital place for writing a letter.

It was only 5:20 o'clock of the early Sabbath morning when in company with Captain Bierer, of Uniontown, Pa., and Conductor C. D. Woods, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, I sought this unusual position. It is one that is unsurpassed on the train, allowing at once an excellent view on each side and another excellent view of the territory over which we pass, while the conversation of the conductor, who knows all there is to know of western life, adds materially to the pleasure of the morning.

The air is crisp, and a wonderful landscape stretches forth on every hand. Laramie peak, great and towering when in hailing distance, cleaves the beautiful blue dome 150 miles away, but to the blue coated tenderfoot seems no farther than 15 or 20 miles, a mistake which often caused suffering and disaster before the sturdy iron horse had supplanted the poor beasts of burden who painfully toiled across the plains with immigrants, ambitious to build for themselves homes and fortunes in the fairland of the west.

Elk's peake, another proud eminence, towers yet a little farther away, its top, capped with snow throughout the year, and looking not unlike the conical tents we have seen in times of service. Other ranges shine out under the brilliant sun, white like the silver to which so many politicians of this district adhere, all beautiful, all calculated to inspire with thoughts of grandeur the Easterner who passes this way for the first time and imagines he has seen in the east some of God's masterpieces. They are here, many of them, great and magnificent in their beauty, wonderful to behold, almost beyond the comprehension of the average man.

As the train ran rapidly onward, I believe that is the correct expression, we pass great herds of cattle, being rounded up by typical cowboys, men who are almost as wild as the beasts they control. Then we saw three bunches of beautiful fleet footed antelopes, who bounded away in fear at the piercing shriek of the whistle. Jack rabbits, made up in the main of ears and legs, were abundant a day or two ago, and how they can run! Even Liverpool amateur horseman, breaking the fast driving ordinance, would put to shame the perfection of their performance. The prairie dogs are cute little chaps, while the squirrels are wonders. Occasionally we see beautiful wild duck and quail, while meadow larks are found in profusion. Mountain lions are becoming abundant, but they are cowardly brutes unlike the California lions, who do not hesitate to attack human beings. Coyotes, yelping and unsightly, play havoc with the sheep of this region, while the gray wolf of this region is fierce and much dreaded by ranchmen. They have an abnormal appetite for sheep, and gloat over lambs, and when hungry and hard pressed will not hesitate to attack and slay full grown steers.

The most vicious animal, perhaps is the mountain rat. It is no larger than the common Norway rat, but carries with it a heavy tail. Where it came from no one knows, but when gathered in large numbers it will attack adults, and has often been known to make short work of sleeping infants.

We expect to reach San Francisco Wednesday morning, and from there I will likely be in position to give you details of our trip across the Pacific. It is likely we will be armed with the Crag Jorgensen long range rifle, and when we think of the sharpshooters and marksmen among the Tenth we cannot but believe that any Spanish enemy we may meet will be well taken care of.

The people are all loyal. Everywhere we have been hailed with cheers, and in many places they were reinforced with hot coffee. We have not found a copperhead.

The boys of the Tenth are becoming veterans. Colonel Hawkin's orders regarding the treatment of women are being carried out to the letter, and the soldiers are remembering the mothers, wives and sweethearts they left at home. Each day does more to show the Tenth is a crack command.

HARRY PALMER.

SHAFTER AND A FOOTBALL.

The Major General's Five Laughable Attempts to Kick the Leather Sphere.

Major General William R. Shafter, second in command of the troops assembled in Florida, was until about a year ago colonel of the First infantry, stationed at Angel island, in the harbor of San Francisco. He was as a regimental commander a somewhat stern soldier, and the enlisted men took pains not to cross him. Shafter can't weigh much less than 300 pounds. One afternoon a couple of years ago the soldiers of one of the First's companies were playing football on the parade ground. They were playing the old fashioned kicking game. One of the men got the ball squarely on the toe of his government straight shoe and hoisted it about half a block through a window of Colonel Shafter's parlor, which fronted upon the parade ground. The players were knocked endwise by this accident. They stood mute, with their hands down, for a minute.

MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM R. SHAFTER.

"It's all up with the mob of us, all right," they said; "summary court, month in the clink and a blind for every one of us." A blind is a military fine. They stood waiting to see what was going to happen, for they knew the colonel was in his quarters.

In half a minute or so the colossal form of Colonel Shafter appeared in the doorway of his quarters. He had the football under his arm. The man who had kicked the ball through the commanding officer's parlor window was just about to race over to Shafter and tell him that he alone was responsible when the colonel raised the ball before him with both hands. He made a swipe at it with his foot and missed it by about a yard. If he had caught it with his toe, the soldiers might have been looking for the football yet, for the huge colonel spun around a couple of times on the landing of the steps so fiercely did he kick at the leather sphere. Failing to kick it he walked down the steps, picked up the ball, went up to the landing again and tried again; another fizzle. He didn't come anywhere near kicking the ball. Five times he repeated this performance, the soldiers out on the parade ground smothering the howls they wanted to give vent to. The sixth time Colonel Shafter caught the ball squarely and it went sailing into the air. The colonel himself went sailing down to the foot of the steps. He landed in a heap, and, considering his immense weight, it is a wonder that he did not break a leg. He didn't, however, and when he got up his sides were shaking with laughter. The First infantrymen did not stand in quite so much fear of Shafter and liked him better after this.—New York Sun.

The Shilling Trick.

A wandering sleight of hand man was entertaining some loungers with an exhibition of his tricks. After showing a good number of them, he said: "But I have one good trick that I call the shilling trick."

Of course they all wanted to see that, so he instructed a good number of them to give him a shilling, after having marked it and carefully noted the date. About a dozen of the bystanders did so, and he took them all, shook them up, and then showed each man another shilling than the one he had marked, accompanying each shilling with the question:

"Is that yours?" Each man, of course, said "No," and he strolled away, saying: "Then they must all be mine."—London Globe.

"Rescue on the Brain."

A story about a dog, told in an English sporting book, "The Man on the March," brings out the fact that too much praise may be as injurious as too much fault finding.

A half bred retriever pulled a girl out of the river near her home. Of course the dog was much praised and petted, and this brought on what the author calls an attack of "rescue on the brain."

No man, no feathered biped, no quadruped, was allowed to go into the river without being pulled out by the dog. Cows were not allowed to drink, ducks and if an angler attempted to wade he was "rescued against his will."

Beautiful Winona.

Winona lake, Indiana, (formerly Eagle lake) is an attractive summer haven on the Pennsylvania lines near Warsaw, Indiana. As the site of Winona Assembly and Summer school, this resort has grown into popular favor very rapidly. Improvements made on the two hundred acres of romantic woodland which stretches nearly two miles along the eastern shore of Winona lake, a beautiful sheet of water, include all the comforts and conveniences for a highly enjoyable sojourn. Ample facilities are at hand for satisfactory entertainment at reasonable rates at the commodious hotel which adjoins the railway station at the entrance to the grounds, in cosy cottages, or in tents as may be preferred.

Persons who may desire to combine devotion, entertainment and instruction with rest and recreation will find Winona lake the ideal spot for invigorating both mind and body by instructive entertainment and study and health-giving recreation. The educational work of the Summer school is in charge of well known instructors. The college halls are equipped with all required paraphernalia; the large auditorium in which the Assembly meets, and in which prominent lecturers are heard during the season, has a seating capacity of over 3,000. An amphitheatre, race track and other facilities for athletic pastimes are provided. The fishing, bathing and boating are fine, the large fleet of boats being of the best.

The season of 1898 will open May 15. Commencing on that date excursion tickets with 15 day limit will be on sale via Pennsylvania lines. They may be obtained during May, June, July and August. The sale of season excursion tickets will begin June 1, and continue daily until Sept. 30. Season excursion tickets will be good returning until Oct. 31.

Full information about the attractions at "Beautiful Winona," its Assembly and Summer school, etc., will be cheerfully furnished all who address Mr. Sol. C. Dickey, secretary, Winona Lake, Ind. Inquiries about excursion rates, time of trains, etc., should be addressed to passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines or to F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the coast, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

UNION LABELS.

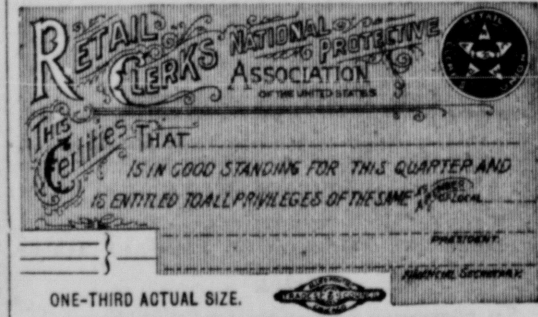

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

ONE-THIRD ACTUAL SIZE.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

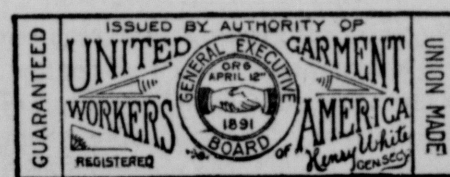

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeited, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

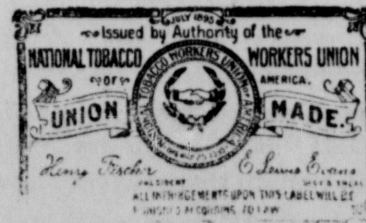

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.

The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakershops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

THE NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.

HE NEEDS MORE MEN

Captain Stephenson Wants to Fill His Company.

DRILLS WILL BE REGULAR

The Call For Volunteers Has Aroused Soldiers, and they are Anxious to Be Ready Should the Governor Decide to Accept Their Services.

The call of President McKinley for volunteers has aroused Wellsville's soldiers, in such a manner that active work will be carried on from the present time until it is known whether they will be needed by Governor Bushnell to make out Ohio's quota.

Captain Stevenson, who has worked hard to make the company something tangible, has issued a call for the command to assemble at the fair ground this evening at 7 o'clock for drill. It is probable a large number of citizens will be there to see the boys pass through their first instruction. The intention is to drill them in squads until they have mastered the rudiments of the facings and marching, after which it is hoped they can be drilled in the manual of arms as one company. A number of military men from Liverpool, men who are well acquainted with tactics, have offered their services and they will be accepted.

At present the company numbers 64 men, but the required number will undoubtedly be obtained in the near future, as a number of young men of this place and surrounding country are anxious to go the front. If Governor Bushnell needs the company he will find the boys ready for duty.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS

Took Mrs. N. U. Walker to a Meeting at Cambridge.

Mrs. N. U. Walker left on the afternoon train yesterday for Cambridge. She goes to attend the conference of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Eastern Ohio conference. The meeting is one of the executive committee only. Mrs. Walker is president of the Steubenville district of the Methodist Episcopal church, which office makes her a member of the executive committee. She has been appointed by the Wellsville Home Missionary society to represent them as a delegate.

ROLLING MILL MEN

Will Have a Big Time When the Pole Is Raised.

On Saturday afternoon at 1:30 a flag-pole will be raised at the Wellsville plate and sheet iron rolling mill, and from it will fly one of the largest flags ever displayed in the town. The flag is already purchased, but the arrangements have not yet been completed.

A great deal of enthusiasm is being manifested, and preparations are in progress that will make the event one long to be remembered. The arrangements are all in the hands of the employees.

AFTER VOLUNTEERS.

Firemen Want Boys to Haul the Sporting Truck.

The firemen have called for 30 volunteers—boys ranging in age from 10 to 16 years. The particular work for which they are needed is hauling the sporting truck to the cemetery in the procession on Decoration day.

The truck will be very handsomely decorated, as will all of the firemen's equipment, making a fine display. A full turnout of the firemen is expected. All the details of the arrangements were made at their meeting last evening.

GOING TO EUROPE.

Miss Stewart Will Spend the Summer Across the Sea.

Miss Stewart, the popular teacher of vocal music and drawing in the schools, will today say good bye to Wellsville, for a time at least.

She goes to Baltimore to join her sister and from there they expect to take a trip to Europe. Her many friends here will wish her a safe voyage and a speedy return. Miss Stewart has been very successful in her work.

The Lecture.

Miss Marie Brehm will deliver a lecture at city hall tonight.

From testimonials that have come to town it is safe to say that our people will have an intellectual treat. No admission will be charged.

BUILDING THE BRIDGE.

Improvements started on the Liverpool Road.

The long expected improvement of the Liverpool road has been commenced, and a contractor and his force are at work rebuilding the culvert at Raugh's run. They are widening it in order that there will be abundant room for the electric line and vehicles. It is not known when it will be completed.

The movement prompts the belief that the commissioners have at last taken the road in hand, and during the summer will make the improvements so badly needed.

WAS RELEASED.

No One Appeared Against James Steele.

James Steele, who was arrested at the house of his brother, Stewart Steele, and around whose past someone has woven a very indifferent romance, was released from the city prison this morning.

No one appeared against the man, and although there was talk of a charge of disorderly conduct, he was allowed to go. The romance feature seems to have fallen in.

NO MORE NIGHT WORK.

Hardware Stores Will Close at 5:30 Each Evening.

The three hardware stores have entered into an arrangement to close their places of business every evening at 5:30 o'clock, thus lessening their hours of labor materially.

The system will be a good thing not alone for the business men, but for all persons in their employ. It is argued the public will quickly drop in line, and the movement will cause no inconvenience.

MORE TRAIN JUMPERS.

Squire Haney Gave Them the Usual Dose.

The unusual activity of the railroad detectives results almost every day in the arrest of someone charged with illegal train riding.

James Hodd, of Pittsburg, and John Gallagher, of Hammondsville, were before Squire Haney charged with illegal train riding. They were each fined $1 and costs. This is Gallagher's second offense.

SONS OF VETERANS

Want to Know Why They Were So Completely Ignored.

The Sons of Veterans are wondering why they were ignored in the published program for Decoration day.

They have arranged not only to turn out as an organization, but have a firing squad which is considered as good as any. The young men believe they should have a place in line.

THE GUTTRIDGE ESTATE.

It Was Considered In Probate Court Today.

The estate of John Guttridge, who committed suicide a few weeks ago, was taken into probate court at Lisbon yesterday, and Homer C. Wells appointed administrator. He gave bond in the sum of $32,000, and will at once take charge of affairs.

More Base Ball.

The base ball boys will hold another meeting at city hall for the purpose of furthering their plans, and arranging for the summer.

The boys, it seems, have set out in the right way this year, and there is no reason why they should not be successful.

Company of Immigrants.

A company of immigrants—about 15 in number, all men and women—were transferred from the Pittsburg to the Cleveland train yesterday afternoon. Their odd appearance and strange speech attracted much attention.

A Day In the Woods.

The pupils of the East End school and those in Miss Kingam's room were out in the woods yesterday.

They went up the lower road to Hibbitt's mill and enjoyed every bit of the time, returning tired and happy.

Buried This Afternoon.

The funeral services of the late James Moore were held at 10 o'clock today. Rev. C. L. V. McKee officiated. Interment was had at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Remembered the Teachers.

Mrs. Ed Cheeseman entertained the teachers of her children, Miss Weller and Miss Roadman, at her home on First street, last evening.

ALL WHEELMEN IN LINE

Big Demonstration For Decoration Day.

THEY HAVE BEEN INVITED

The Plan Is to Have All Riders Decorate Their Bicycles, and Aid Materially In Making the Procession the Best Ever Seen In Wellsville.

An effort is on foot to have the wheelmen of Wellsville to take an active part in the parade next Monday.

It is estimated that there are over 800 wheelmen and women in Wellsville, and if half of them would mount their wheels and ride in the procession it would make an imposing display. They could do as much honor to the old soldiers in this as in any other way, and would increase the importance of the parade. It is urged that every person owning a wheel join in the movement by decorating his steed, and falling into line. A great many have already signified their willingness to join the movement, and if a few will but place themselves at the head there is no doubt but what it will be a complete success. It would certainly make a beautiful sight, one that would be a credit to Wellsville.

A MARKET.

Presbyterian Ladies Have a Plan For Making Money.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church have hit upon a novel plan for the raising of money.

Next Saturday afternoon the members will have at the vestibule of the church a splendid exhibit of cakes, pies and bread, and the public is invited to call and buy what is there. The market will be continued regularly each Saturday afternoon if this proves to be a success. Mrs. R. W. Everson is leading the project.

Was Ill a Long Time.

Mrs. Dorothy Parker died at her home on Raugh's run, east of town, at 2 o'clock this morning. Her age was 49 years. She had been ill with dropsy for about six months. The funeral services will be held at the home on Saturday at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. C. Jones officiating.

Wandering Minstrels.

Two musicians, one with a harp and the other with violin, made excellent music on the streets yesterday.

Entertained.

Mrs. Clarence Maylone entertained friends at tea today in honor of her sister who is her guest.

Personal.

Miss Ruth Stevens is visiting friends in Salineville.

Mrs. A. C. Fogo spent the day with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. C. Bauer, of Knoxville, was shopping in Wellsville yesterday.

Mrs. W. H. Winn is visiting her parents in Steubenville for a few days.

Mr. M. E. Shea, of Bradford, Pa., is visiting Miss Josie Snowden, of Commerce street.

Miss Georgia Hamilton went to Irondale this morning to strew the town with Dewey plates.

Miss Roberta Shane passed through town on her way to visit her sister, Mrs. W. R. Cole, of Irondale.

Mrs. Effie Cross, of Rochester, is visiting her father, Oscar Jenkins. She came yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Kate Carter, of Salineville, who has been visiting friends in town for the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Dr. R. D. A. Gunn, of Cleveland, was in town today on business connected with the relief departments of the railroad.

Miss Ella O'Donnell and Miss Lillie Foutts took the afternoon train yesterday to visit friends in Salineville. They expect to remain until Friday.

Mrs. T. B. Kerr, accompanied by her nephew, James Cameron, of Rochester, N. Y., left on the noon train yesterday for a visit with Mrs. Kerr's daughter, Mrs. S. J. Kerr, of Bellvue, Pa.

Rev. W. L. Swan and wife stopped long enough to greet friends, on their way from a visit to Mrs. Swan's father, Rev. J. N. Swan, of Island Creek. They took the noon train for their home in Warren yesterday.

Reverend Harvey Stewart, who was formerly presiding elder of Steubenville conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and resided in Steubenville, passed through on the afternoon train yesterday on his way from Steubenville to his home in Cleveland.

WAS RELEASED.

No One Appeared Against James Steele.

James Steele, who was arrested at the house of his brother, Stewart Steele, and around whose past someone has woven a very indifferent romance, was released from the city prison this morning.

No one appeared against the man, and although there was talk of a charge of disorderly conduct, he was allowed to go. The romance feature seems to have fallen in.

NO MORE NIGHT WORK.

Hardware Stores Will Close at 5:30 Each Evening.

The three hardware stores have entered into an arrangement to close their places of business every evening at 5:30 o'clock, thus lessening their hours of labor materially.

The system will be a good thing not alone for the business men, but for all persons in their employ. It is argued the public will quickly drop in line, and the movement will cause no inconvenience.

MORE TRAIN JUMPERS.

Squire Haney Gave Them the Usual Dose.

The unusual activity of the railroad detectives results almost every day in the arrest of someone charged with illegal train riding.

James Hodd, of Pittsburg, and John Gallagher, of Hammondsville, were before Squire Haney charged with illegal train riding. They were each fined $1 and costs. This is Gallagher's second offense.

SONS OF VETERANS

Want to Know Why They Were So Completely Ignored.

The Sons of Veterans are wondering why they were ignored in the published program for Decoration day.

They have arranged not only to turn out as an organization, but have a firing squad which is considered as good as any. The young men believe they should have a place in line.

THE GUTTRIDGE ESTATE.

It Was Considered In Probate Court Today.

The estate of John Guttridge, who committed suicide a few weeks ago, was taken into probate court at Lisbon yesterday, and Homer C. Wells appointed administrator. He gave bond in the sum of $32,000, and will at once take charge of affairs.

More Base Ball.

The base ball boys will hold another meeting at city hall for the purpose of furthering their plans, and arranging for the summer.

The boys, it seems, have set out in the right way this year, and there is no reason why they should not be successful.

Company of Immigrants.

A company of immigrants—about 15 in number, all men and women—were transferred from the Pittsburg to the Cleveland train yesterday afternoon. Their odd appearance and strange speech attracted much attention.

A Day In the Woods.

The pupils of the East End school and those in Miss Kingam's room were out in the woods yesterday.

They went up the lower road to Hibbitt's mill and enjoyed every bit of the time, returning tired and happy.

Buried This Afternoon.

The funeral services of the late James Moore were held at 10 o'clock today. Rev. C. L. V. McKee officiated. Interment was had at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Remembered the Teachers.

Mrs. Ed Cheeseman entertained the teachers of her children, Miss Weller and Miss Roadman, at her home on First street, last evening.

ALL WHEELMEN IN LINE

Big Demonstration For Decoration Day.

THEY HAVE BEEN INVITED

The Plan Is to Have All Riders Decorate Their Bicycles, and Aid Materially In Making the Procession the Best Ever Seen in Wellsville.

An effort is on foot to have the wheelmen of Wellsville to take an active part in the parade next Monday.

It is estimated that there are over 800 wheelmen and women in Wellsville, and if half of them would mount their wheels and ride in the procession it would make an imposing display. They could do as much honor to the old soldiers in this as in any other way, and would increase the importance of the parade. It is urged that every person owning a wheel join in the movement by decorating his steed, and falling into line. A great many have already signified their willingness to join the movement, and if a few will but place themselves at the head there is no doubt but what it will be a complete success. It would certainly make a beautiful sight, one that would be a credit to Wellsville.

A MARKET.

Presbyterian Ladies Have a Plan For Making Money.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church have hit upon a novel plan for the raising of money.

Next Saturday afternoon the members will have at the vestibule of the church a splendid exhibit of cakes, pies and bread, and the public is invited to call and buy what is there. The market will be continued regularly each Saturday afternoon if this proves to be a success. Mrs. R. W. Everson is leading the project.

Was Ill a Long Time.

Mrs. Dorothy Parker died at her home on Raugh's run, east of town, at 2 o'clock this morning. Her age was 49 years. She had been ill with dropsy for about six months. The funeral services will be held at the home on Saturday at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. C. Jones officiating.

Wandering Minstrels.

Two musicians, one with a harp and the other with violin, made excellent music on the streets yesterday.

Entertained.

Mrs. Clarence Maylone entertained friends at tea today in honor of her sister who is her guest.

Personal.

Miss Ruth Stevens is visiting friends in Salineville.

Mrs. A. C. Fogo spent the day with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. C. Bauer, of Knoxville, was shopping in Wellsville yesterday.

Mrs. W. H. Winn is visiting her parents in Steubenville for a few days.

Mr. M. E. Shea, of Bradford, Pa., is visiting Miss Josie Snowden, of Commerce street.

Miss Georgia Hamilton went to Irondale this morning to strew the town with Dewey plates.

Miss Roberta Shane passed through town on her way to visit her sister, Mrs. W. R. Cole, of Irondale.

Mrs. Effie Cross, of Rochester, is visiting her father, Oscar Jenkins. She came yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Kate Carter, of Salineville, who has been visiting friends in town for the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Dr. R. D. A. Gunn, of Cleveland, was in town today on business connected with the relief departments of the railroad.

Miss Ella O'Donnell and Miss Lillie Foutts took the afternoon train yesterday to visit friends in Salineville. They expect to remain until Friday.

Mrs. T. B. Kerr, accompanied by her nephew, James Cameron, of Rochester, N. Y., left on the noon train yesterday for a visit with Mrs. Kerr's daughter, Mrs. S. J. Kerr, of Bellvue, Pa.

Rev. W. L. Swan and wife stopped long enough to greet friends, on their way from a visit to Mrs. Swan's father, Rev. J. N. Swan, of Island Creek. They took the noon train for their home in Warren yesterday.

Reverend Harvey Stewart, who was formerly presiding elder of Steubenville conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and resided in Steubenville, passed through on the afternoon train yesterday on his way from Steubenville to his home in Cleveland.
